Street people bus brings food to needy

A program that feeds the poor took its ministry to the street people Wednesday as workers served stew, sandwiches and punch from a bus under the N. 7th St. viaduct. About 50 people came to the first meal, sponsored by the Disciples Ministry at 1000 Oliver Av. N. The Rev. Paul Arnopoulos, center, plans nightly rounds to places where the homeless sleep and deliver food, clothing and the gospel.
